David,

I just electronically filed the attached satisfaction of judgement. I am working on the settlement notice right now.

Thank you,

Good afternoon Brandon,

Further to our conversation of today at 4pm ET between you, Nedeen (Legal Counsel), Andy (Advisor) and I, we agreed to the following:-

* you will file the necessary paper work for the previous default judgement either later today or tomorrow morning.

* we agree to two calendar weeks for us to figure out what occurred and reach a settlement between all parties to the case.

* you will file the relevant suspension paperwork with the court either later today or tomorrow morning to this effect.

I believe I have covered the spirit of what we discussed?

Regards
